SITUATION SUMMARY

We continue to see increased containment on all fires in Oregon. The public is urged to practice fire safety as upcoming warmer and drier weather conditions could prove challenging for firefighters. Nearly 4,000 Oregonians have registered for Individual Assistance with approximately $4.7 million already approved. Learn more about applying for Individual Assistance at DisasterAssistance.gov.

NEED TO KNOW

Critical Needs Assistance
Financial assistance is available to eligible households with immediate or critical needs due to being displaced from their homes.

Immediate or critical needs include items such as water, food, first aid, prescriptions, infant formula, diapers, consumable medical supplies, durable medical equipment, personal hygiene items and fuel for transportation.

So far, FEMA has approved more than 1,000 one-time $500 payments in assistance in Oregon. Critical Needs Assistance is one of several forms of FEMA aid available to affected residents.
